

Teaching East Asia Through Visual Culture

A Hybrid Professional Development Workshop for Arkansas Teachers
Grades 6 - 12

Orientation Session:
July 27th | 8:30am – 10:00am
Asynchronous Online Program:
Four One-Hour Modules & Readings
Available Through Google Classroom

This fun, content-focused workshop explores prints, propaganda posters, comic books, film, and videogames as vital tools for understanding East Asia's past and present.

LEARN from experts in Asian history, language, and culture

DISCOVER engaging, multilayered materials and free, online archives of important sources with English translations

PREPARE lesson plans for in-person or ONLINE instruction

MAKE ASIA APPROACHABLE TO YOUR STUDENTS

Benefits:

- 6 Hours of Continuing Education Credit
- $100+ in classroom materials

Sponsorship
Provided By:

For More Information,
Contact the Instructors:
Dr. Paul Crutcher | pacrutcher@ualr.com
Dr. Zach Smith | zsmith@uca.edu