

Teaching East Asia Through Visual Culture

A Professional Development Workshop for Arkansas Teachers, Grades 6 - 12

July 27th | 9am – 3pm
@ Arch Ford ESC
100 Bulldog Dr.

Plumerville, AR 72127

Lunch and Snacks Provided

This fun, content-focused workshop explores prints, propaganda posters, comic books, film, and videogames as vital tools for understanding East Asia's past and present.

LEARN from experts in Asian history, language, and culture

DISCOVER engaging, multilayered materials and free, online archives of important sources with English translations

PREPARE lesson plans for in-person or ONLINE instruction

MAKE ASIA APPROACHABLE TO YOUR STUDENTS

Benefits:

- 6 Hours of Continuing Education Credit
- $100+ in classroom materials

Sponsorship
Provided By:

For More Information,
Contact the Instructors:

Dr. Paul Crutcher | pacrutcher@ualr.com

Dr. Zach Smith | zsmith@uca.edu